

Closing the Achievement Gap for English Language Learners

Professional development for teachers, by teachers

WHO: For elementary teachers who would like more background information on working with ELL students. Presented by Linda Bay and Rosana Trujillo—APS ELL teachers trained by the National Education Association.

WHAT: A class to help educators apply the best research-based Language Development, Culture and Equity practices in the classroom. This is an ideal way to develop understandings and strategies in a collegial atmosphere.

WHEN: Saturday, January 31 and Saturday, February 21 from 9:00 to 3:00

WHERE: Virginia Court Elementary 395 S. Troy St (just north of Aurora Hills)

HOW to register: Email Rosana Trujillo at rrtrujillo@aps.k12.co.us or call 303-366-9594. There is a $25 fee for the class for both AEA members* and non-members, due before the first class. Make checks payable to AEA and send to Virginia Court, attn: Rosana Trujillo.

AEA members will receive a benefit-of-membership refund (your check will be returned to you) if you complete both classes.*

A light breakfast and lunch will be provided.

Participants are eligible for CDE credit, and ADAMS STATE credit is available for $45.
