

Technology Integration Caucus

Blogs Discovery OnePlace Wikis Web 2.0

ActivStudio Microsoft Office 21st Century Skills

Would you like time to learn more about these resources and to plan for using them in your instruction to meet the learning needs of you and your students?

Would you like to earn 3 credit hours for salary advancement or CDE recertification? College credit from Adams State is also available at $45.00/credit.

AEA is embracing 21st Century learning by offering a Summer Technology Institute.

Novice, Experienced, Advanced users of technology...

Elementary, Middle School, High School

This Institute is for YOU!!!

When: July 13-17

Time: 8:00 am-4:30 pm

Place: Sixth Avenue Elementary

Cost: AEA Members-$25.00 refundable on attendance

Non-Members-$50.00

Space is limited to 40 participants

Fill out the registration form below and send it along with your check made payable to AEA to Shannon Wentworth at Sixth Avenue OR Gwynn Moore, Paris Elementary

=====

Name _____ Summer Phone Number _____

School _____ Grade Teaching _____

Technology Experience: Beginning Some Experience Advanced

Do you have access to an Interactive White Board: Yes ___ No ___ AEA Member Y ___ N ___

For more information email Shannon Wentworth (scwentworth@aps.k12.co.us), or Gwynn Moore (gm Moore@aps.k12.co.us)